Village Square Third Thursdays Car Show & Festival Celebrates St. Patrick's Day with Shopping Center Dining and Retail Specials and Discounts

LAS VEGAS – This month's Village Square Third Thursdays March Car Show and Festival coincides with St. Patrick's Day and that means the shopping center called a "foodie paradise" by guests is celebrating with discount offers and other fun activities on March 17.

The popular Bachi Burger will have $3 Green Draft Beers and $5 St. Paddy's Shakes, Viva Mercado's Mexican Bar & Grill will give 10% off for guests who wear "Kelly green", Rocket Fizz is offering 20% off taffy and Color Me Mine is providing 50% off the studio fee for guests who wear green on St Patrick's Day. Please check in at the Village Square raffle booth the day of the event for additional day specials.

"There is a lot to celebrate this month with Third Thursdays falling on St. Patrick's Day, having the opportunity to enjoy longer and warmer days with the time change and welcoming Spring," said Erica Lowndes, Sentinel Development property management. "

Third Thursdays will take place from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. at 9400 W. Sahara Avenue and Ft. Apache Rd. In addition to special business discounts throughout Village Square business, Third Thursdays will host its classic car and hot rod car show as well as several unique local arts and crafts vendors such as Nerdtastic Craftations, ReThreads: foxy style, Mad Girl with a Box, Osborne Books, Sassy Pants Creations, Lucy Lyn Designs, Artsy Creations, Purses By Linda, Walsh's Woodworks, Mystic Herb Shop, Jelle Soaps, KF Artistry, Tea or Tisane, Kidz Accezzoriez and Syllie Rocks.

Raffles prizes, children's balloon artist and music will round out the special monthly event. The non-profit Toys 4 Smile will be giving away a free hand-made wooden toy car or truck to every child present who needs a smile and Cultural Homestay International, a non-profit educational organization which places foreign exchange students with host families, will also be on hand.
